Reveille to Taps ... B Company

Pvt. Russo and Pvt. Craft

With regrets we say so long to the Alabama Area and so far as we are concerned "Hello" to Nebraska. How can we forget that last week in Atlanta. Lets reminisce on some of the scenes here and there in that fair and lovely city.

Sgt. Dave "Lucille" Parks clearing the floor at the OWL ROOM and giving a great exhibition of some fancy rug cutting.

Sgt. George (BODY BEAUTIFUL) Steuart, now a private. Say George, did Betty have anything to do with your demotion? ... Pvt. Russo being carried up to his suite in the Clermont Hotel by Pfc. Stansbury and a Sweet Senorita. Claims he was MICKEY FINNED. What again?

Pvt. O'Malley and Sgt. Miller entertaining guests in room 517 at the Clermont Hotel. ... And it wasn't the mayor of Atlanta either.

Lt. Naven sitting with three Atlanta beauties in the OWL ROOM whittling away the hours sipping. (Sure as hell wasn't tea). ... While listening to the song warbler at the Dogwood Room Pvt. STRECKER leaned too far over the rail and fell 15 feet to the floor. ... Scared his right eye on the fall. ... Well fellows let's forget Atlanta for a while.

All Russo got out of it was the following poem.

A black sheep sir you think I am, You've thought so sir since

Alabama

I am what I am and that's all I am And personally sir, I don't give a damn.

In calling the roll, the report said, "One man's absent but he ain't dead"

The officers chorused "Who can it be That's disgracing the Parachute Infantry?"

"Pvt. Doe sir, the Sgt. said He's in Atlanta and far from dead"

"God help him, the officer said I'll make him wish that he were dead"

When he reports send him to me He'll live and die doing K. P."

"And now sir that I've seen a living dead"

I come to you all out of breath I come to you all full of shame Upon myself I throw the blame, Please sir, lets be friends once more

And do not ride my A— any more.

It is rumored that Pvt. Craft is getting demanding letters from a certain girl in Macon Georgia. ... That's all right Tom we'll give you a military wedding and you and your blushing bride may walk beneath 'B' company's crossed parachutes.

Pvt. (two gun) Gillen and Pvts. Poksuyka Syracuse and Cain back with 'B' company after a brief forlough in the stockade. ... Two-somes. ... Pvts. Hanson and Dearing. (Back late from a pass in Atlanta and both with the same excuse???) ... Pvts. Sircuse and Poksuyka. (the stockade couldn't keep them apart.) What lieutenant scares so proudly at his shiny silver bars and sort of recites "Twinkle, twinkle shiny bar how I wish you were a star."

Cheers ... Pvt. Bill Esquelbel for his slashing victory over the Barksdale boxing champion. Lt. Clarke for his unique rifle inspection.

BEST LIE OF THE MONTH. When Major Ostberg asked Pvt. Allen why he had not shaved for the inspection he answered "Sir, I did not have time." Don't you remember, Allen? the answer should have been "No excuse, sir."

Having nothing better to do the other day, the boys got together and gave some fancy definitions of Colonel Stoopnagles' Fictionary

Headquarters Co. 1st Bn.

By Sergeant Bruner

Corporal Fanning and Pvt. Popivchak had a high old time in Atlanta. March 1st through 5th, they would go down the street barking at the girls and after awhile they had the girls barking back at them.

Headquarters Company bought and paid for Atlanta on that three day pass but neglected to bring it with them. All the Hotel keepers, whiskey distillers and Georgia Peaches say the 507 leave Fort Benning with tears in their eyes.

Jimmy "Little" Brawn got himself, engaged to one of the cutest lil de-lcers in the fair city of Atlanta. Mighty swell dancer too, she answers to the name of Alice Merritt. Her sister Mary was squired about by our efficient mail orderly Shelton Manning.

At this time we'd like to pay tribute to several, Atlanta Belles who helped the Chute-troopers enjoy their stay in the Georgia Capitol. Dottie Dodds, Jackie Barnes, Evelyn Brand, Lois Mayson, Geneva Guthrie, Elizabeth "Swoose" Swann, the Merritt sisters and countless other members of the fair sex who contributed to the fun.

The Henry Grady hated to see the 507 leave, not to mention the Winecoff Room 837 never had a moments peace, it was filled from dawn to dusk with high Paratroopers, empty bottles and lit-up dames. We already have a reservation for 937 as it makes an Ideal "Orderly Room" from which to make the "plan of battle" and stuff.

Cpl. Herron did alright. We won't rat on him though even if he didn't give us a cigar.

Switching from Atlanta to Shreveport, Pete "Blossom" Urban had lots of fun the night before we left. He passed out in a room with a "Do Not Disturb" sign hung on his chest. He didn't refuse a drink all night and had everything from Old Crow to Champagne. (Yes, Champagne) Got mad because he couldn't get a ladies' sipper to sip it from.

Pete Wolf was wolfing a couple WAAC's but Urban and Bruner beat him to them. Will you forgive us, Sergeant?

Popivchak got lost again, this time in the wilds of Atlanta. Probably forgot to take his compass with him. Hes still enraptured with the charms of a beautiful blonde he met. Her name is Elizabeth but he calls her "Swoose" and she calls him "Poppy". Isn't that ducky-wucky?

We've discovered the champ letter writers of the 507. Corporal Boyce Fanning thinks nothing of writing 16 pages to his beloved Geneva and she reciprocates. Sgt. Stentz made a haul last Thursday he received 19 letters, no less.

In closing we'd like to mention how much we "hated" (?) to leave Columbus. The merchants of that miserable city were alright and don't let us hear a thing said against them. They'd sell you anything they had for ten times what it was worth, with a smile too.

Unabashed and the following are a few of Pvt. Lewandowskis' definitions.

FRIGIDHEIR ... one who has been left a cool million. NEW-TENANT ... army officer who just moved in the next apartment. BOAMEO ... a lover with roaming hands. GYMLAZIUM ... where paratroopers don't go to exercise.

In closing ... Please bear the brunt of our first effort at columnizing. All suggestions and all jokes will be appreciated. Any similarity to other columns is purely intentional.

Intelligence Section

BLIND EYE DOES'T STOP SOLDIER FROM JOINING UP

Camp Perry, Ohio (CNS)—Sigmund Clayton, a shipping clerk in Cleveland, tried several times to enlist in Uncle Sam's armed services, but to no avail. A blind crossed eye and false teeth were the reasons.

But Clayton was persistent. He wrote to President Roosevelt and complained that surely there was some place in the Army for him. Ten days later he was summoned by his draft board and was sent to Camp Perry, where his left eye was operated on and restored to normal vision.

Small Boys Cadets Fire

New York (CNS)—A group of Naval cadets in training at Columbia University here were left standing outside one wintry day while their leader entered a building to find out exactly where they should report. While he was gone a group of small boys began peppering the officers-to-be with snowballs. The cadets were taking it indulgently when the leader returned. Grasping the situation at a glance he became a man of action. "Left. FACE!" he snapped, then "Fire at will!"

The boys withdrew in the face of a force with superior fire power.

HYPO SHOTS

Shad Campbell

Flight Commander (Pvt. Bolick) expects to make his next jump any day now. Ditto Dry Runs Sgt. Kelly. Pvt. Fenchard has returned to the medics, Hello Stranger. You can say what you want about the Feather merchant but when its comes to swinging a gun, He's tops. That Rugged Mass of a man, Sgt. Ahlquist hasn't been going to town these nights, could it be that the girls are too husky and he might get K O 'ed.

Happy man, old kneeless action Sgt. Cless, can't double time that way. Ever since Cpl. Zimmerman received a recent letter, he's been singing some song about walking in the woods—Entitled "I Want, Wood You". Congrats to nappy pappy, Pvt. Frank. Copied from T-5 Gonzales Diary—The Service Record, she's all wrong, I make sixteen jump the service Record she says eight. Madison is always saying, "Who's that Hill Billy from Phelan Bay, N. Y. Whats wrong with T-5 Elliott, could it be a girl in Arkansas."

Thanks a Million: The enlisted men of the Medical Detachment wish to express their sincere gratitude to Col. Millett for the fine set up given them on their arrival at the new post.

Q. Can you tell me why there never is a Company "J"?

A. "I" and "J" are too similar in appearance, so "J" has been eliminated.

'C' Company Sounds Off!

G. F. Klein

"Nothing from a straight line swerves So sharply as a woman's curves, And, having swerved, no might or main Can ever put her straight again!"

The 507th left Alabama with a bang, and arrived in Shreveport, La., minus their sweethearts ... Judging from mail call via the La. route they fared well indeed.

It's with deepest regret that this scribe bids farewell to "C" Company, the scene of his former activities ... and—ah well, let's skip it.

The land of cowboys, cattle and Indians are probably a trifle awe stricken since the invasion of 'chutists in their city. Perhaps, no more so than the troopers, who simply can't understand, why there should be a shortage of stocks in this cattle country.

Pvt. Johnny Kmech, "C" company's "cassanova", lost no time in capturing a cow girl ... a matter of rehabilitation.

"Pappy Johns", Killian and Elliott insisted on visiting Teepee village—result, big chief, "No-Likum."

Danny Katcher is homesick these days, he seems to be brooding over his sweet little missus. I wonder if the lack of Atlanta atmosphere could be the cause of it?

Sammy Jharmak and Gotley are creating a sensation as fight managers. At the present time Gotley is convalescing from a recent unfortunate illness in the post hospital.

"Professors" Sparke defined specified he was in love ... with whom we do not know, but we assume it's the gal from home we've heard so much about.

Pvt. Troutman is on furlough ... at last he exclaimed, "a reprieve from field tactics."

"Wild Bill" Kirby and "Eight-ball" Collins claim they saw green elephants in La. Bourbon depicts some hair raising scenes at times.

Wonder when Fohowha is going to marry that Philly girl ... ?

Something is in the wind for D. A. Kelley and it's going to happen very soon ... you do spell lassee with two s'es don't you Dan?

Looney Receives Unique Bars

NEW YORK (CNS)—A Marine second looney in the South Pacific Area wrote his sister that he had been promoted to the order of the silver bar. He added that it was so hot that he never wore a blouse and only rarely did he don his shirt. She sent him a pair of silver bars neatly mounted in adhesive tape for those days when he will go shirtless.

WOMAN PILOT USED BY JAPS; REPORTS SAILOR

Ashbury Park, N. J. (CNS) — A Nipponese gal was piloting a plane which she crashed into the Aircraft Carrier Hornet along with other Jap pilots who made similar suicide attempts. The identification of the sex of the pilot was reported by Coxswain James S. Prince, who was aboard the Hornet, when he returned home here on furlough.

Despite their suicidal, fanatical flights into the Carrier she was not actually sunk by them. She was so badly damaged that her officers decided to sink her.

HYPO SHOTS

Pfc. Joseph Kotsh

Almost all of the furloughs are over with now, but don't give up fellows we will have more of home life soon.

Out of all that had a furlough so far I think John Despot had the best time at home. It took him two days to fix his truck; two days for a garden he made, and he spent some time at the round house where he worked before the army got him.

There seems to be an epidemic in the Detachment on black eyes. Earl Bolick has one and doesn't know where he got it. Patrick Bruce said he got hit with a hand grenade; we don't know whether it was a left or right. Chico Gonzales has a beauty, too. He said some one told him to shut up, and he thought the guy said stand up!

Speaking of a good record, Michale O'Donnell is battling 1000. Yep, he has never missed yet getting restricted on any inspection. That's some record, Mike.

We have just lost five of our boys from the detachment. They are J. Nicholas, A. Arneson, A. Roberts, L. Criswell and H. Madlock.

WANTED: Stripe Poliah. If anyone can locate some of this please give it to newly made S/Sgt. N. Hornbaker. Whatever gets him up at 5 a. m. is a mystery to him also. Congrats, Sarge!

In a ball game played on the post between the 507th enlisted men and the officers, two Medics were represented. One was Sgt. Kelly and the other Pfc. Kroil. Kroil hit a home run with one man on base. The officers lost 4-0.

Norman Stewart is the carpenter for the detachment. I wish some one would tell him the WPA is done away with.

If anyone wants to know about this man's war, see S/Sgt. Ahlquist, the strongest man in the outfit.

Merriel Longacre is well known as a salesman to the detachment, but his line never seems to work with the Sarge. On May 28th fifteen new men came marching into our camp here looking for a place to sleep and a furlough. They are all fresh from jump school and mighty proud of the fact that they are paratroopers. They are all assigned to the Medical Detachment of the 507th. Most of the fellows are from the east and this wide open country is something new, what with no entertainment which the easterners thrive on . . . and no trees or grass; the changeable weather and sand, is all conducive to furlough, when they get one. However, they told me they would make good under any circumstances.

We all wonder what the three old men do out Hemingford way. I know it is a smaller town than Alliance, so they can't be shopping, or can they? I also know that one of them is getting bow-legged . . . and is that from riding a horse?

Arthur Shronk has turned for the better now. He's been in the base hospital about six weeks now. How does a good rest feel, Art? We all miss you, fellow, so hurry and get well.

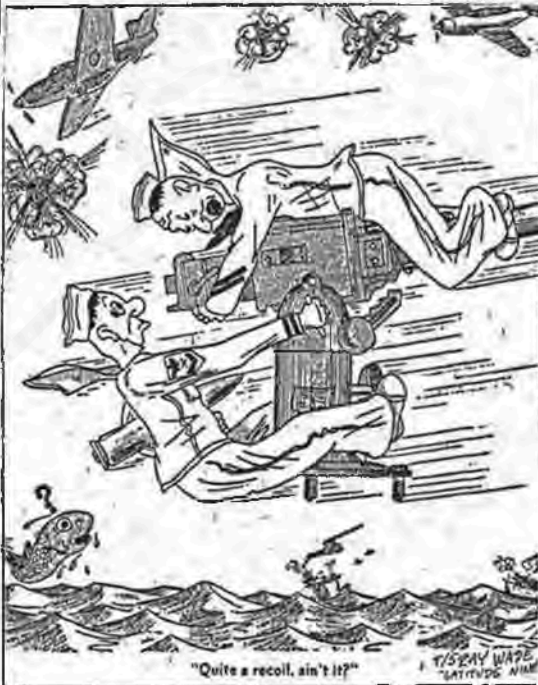

Our mail orderly, Phillip Miller, is the only happy-go-lucky fellow in the detachment. He sings day and night . . . if he could only sing!

Thomas D'Andrea has a soft heart. He felt sorry for Art Shronk that he has spent one week with him at the hospital so far.

Denver Honors Gen. E. Chapman

BOULDER, Colo.—Maj. Gen. Elbridge Gerry Chapman, who was born in Denver and was educated in the Denver public schools and who is now commanding general of the nation's airborne command, in charge of training paratroops and other airborne forces, was honored Monday at Colorado university's commencement exercises held in the Macky auditorium at 10 a. m.

France in September, 1917.

Chapman served at Chateau-Thierry, in the Vaux and Soissons areas, at St. Mihiel, in the Champagne sector, and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive. He was wounded eight days before the armistice. For bravery in action he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, the Silver Star with Oak Leaf Cluster, and the Purple Heart.

Chapman continued in the army after the first World war, leaving it only long enough to complete an extra year of law at Colorado university and Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., when he was awarded an LL. B. degree in 1924.

His military assignments included four years as professor of military science and tactics at Northwestern university and three years as executive officer of the Eighteenth brigade, Boston, Mass. From 1931 to 1935 Chapman was in the Philippines and while there served on the legal staff of the governor general Chapman, a graduate of the university, received the North recognition medal, awarded annually by alumni to the graduate who has achieved greatest distinction in the preceding year in his chosen vocational field. Presentation of the medal was made by W. M. Williams of Denver, president of the associated alumni.

General Chapman, whose headquarters are at Camp Mackall, North Carolina, arrived in Denver unday following an inspection tour of western air force training units. He will be accompanied by a member of his staff, First Lieut. Walter H. Franklin, who is on leave of absence from the university where he was professor of business law.

General Chapman while attending the university enlisted in the Colorado National Guard in 1918. After receiving his A. B. degree in 1917 he entered officers' training camp at Fort Riley, Kan., and was commissioned a second lieutenant. He went to

AWARDS BY DATE OF ACTION:

Silver Star

AWARDED FOR ACTIONS
DURING World War II

Service: Army

Battalion: 2d Battalion

Division: 82d Airborne Division

GENERAL ORDERS:

Headquarters, 82d Airborne Division, General Orders No. 64
(December 13, 1944)

CITATION:

The President of the United States of America, authorized by Act of Congress July 9, 1918, takes pleasure in presenting the Silver Star to Technician Fifth Grade Earl A. Bolick (ASN: 34118194), United States Army, for gallantry in action while serving with Company D, 2d Battalion, 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment, 82d Airborne Division, in action on 6 June 1944 near ****, France. Technician Fifth Grade Bolick was a Medical Aidman with a unit of about 200 men isolated and surrounded by German forces. He had injured his leg upon landing, but continued to carry on his duties efficiently, rendering first aid and collected casualties under heavy enemy fire. On 10 June, the group was ordered to retire across the Merderet River, but he volunteered to remain behind to care for casualties, knowing that it entailed capture by the enemy. The order was later rescinded and the group established contact with friendly forces. Technician Fifth Grade Bolick still insisted on returning to his unit in spite of his injury, and continued to render meritorious service during the remainder of the time his organization was in France. His gallant actions and dedicated devotion to duty, without regard for his own life, were in keeping with the highest traditions of military service and reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Army.
