The Awful Truth

It seems that Lt. Brunson and Lt. Johnson are the shy and un-talkative type. The cute little blonde they were with had to do all the talking the other Saturday night. (Why didn't you boys tell her all about the Paratroops?)

Who is called the Junior G-Man of Co. E? Maybe Lt. (Dick Tracy) Nunn could tell us about that?

Lately we have found out why Sgt. Donovan is so thin. It seems no one can do anything without his help. Lt. Smith, Lt. Poston and Lt. (Hello Kiddies) Burns run him ragged so that no matter how much he eats he can't put on any weight. (Have you tried Ironized Yeast Sarge?)

What this company needs is more men like Cpl. Neilsen. On his day of rest (Sunday) he and Pvt. (Shoot the works!) Fiscus cleaned out the Latrine and saw that the boys had hot water. Cpl. Neilsen rates the "Beer Cap Medal" as soldier of the week.

All men in Co. E are hereby notified that there will be a jam session in Hutment No. 6 every Sunday afternoon. Music by "The Malfunction Four" composed of Cpls. Steen and Rader and Pvts. (Casanova) Hayford and Homesick Smith. Refreshments will be supplied by the guests. (Burps by Arquette) Pfc. (Machine Gun) Allen put on a can can dane as one of the specialties last week.

Pvt. (Where's my gun?) Paul is busy lately studying the diagrams of our planes. Seems he had a little trouble finding the door in one of our jumps. He finally made it with the help of Pvt. (Lemme out) Koblische.

Sgt. (How much farther is it?) Reed has been racing his motor lately because he hasn't heard from his wife in 14 days. (You aren't afraid of those 4F's back home are you Sarge?)

Pvt. (Angel Face) Pickup seen coming out of a girlie girlie show in Atlanta was heard to remark. "And to think we used to stand on the corner for hours just to see their ankles."

People in California haven't a very high opinion of the Paratroops when they send Pvt. (Coal man) Koblische Vitamin Pills. Why don't you tell them you jump from planes, Frank?

Pvt. (Hey Johnny) Coleman has had a little trouble convincing the boys what a wonderful State Georgia is. (Why don't you tell them of that all year round summer weather? (After three nights in bivouac we vote for Alabama.)

Pvt. F. J. (Ray Milland) Stevens and Pvt. (Pretty Boy) Sampson love these maneuvers so well that they went to Birmingham the other Saturday and pulled a few on their own hook. Starting from the Station using the Approach march and taking advantage of cover and concealment they finally took over their objective. (A Beer Tavern).

Members of "Our Pal Club" . . . Lt. Johnson and Lt. McDonough.

Pfc. (Call me Red) Ylizalliturri has written a letter to Betty Roland Strip teaser De Luxe on the Pacific Coast asking her if the boys could dedicate their next jump to her? (Just how do you mean that?) The letter was also signed by Pvt. (Suicide) Stevens Pvt. (Chatter-box) Thacker, Pvt. (One gallon) Cliff Davis, Pvt. (Killer) Rust, and Squint eye Groff. What a bunch of thugs to introduce to a nice girl like Betty?

Do you have troubles? Are you lonely? Don't your clothes fit you? See Sgt. Edmonson and Cpl. Conley. For a nominal fee they will listen to your troubles. For a special fee they will even feel sorry for you. (What will the Chaplain say when he hears you boys are cutting in on his business?)

Pvt. "Smiles" Nelson went to Bridgeport the other week end and a little girl remarked to her Dad, "Look daddy that soldier has a red necktie." Her father said, "Sh-h-h, that's not a red tie—that's his tongue hanging out."

* * * *

A certain cornalk redhead in Chadron goes for "What a man" Santani but he doesn't know it. Cpl. Santani has broken more hearts in three months in Western Nebraska than Valentino did in a life time.

* * * *

Pfc.s Trimm, Barnabe, Dade and Groff make a weekly trip to Sidney. We know that Barnabe carries a torch for PUNCHY and Trimm would gladly die for a smile from T. N. T. Dade and Groff play the field.

* * * *

All the girls at Kruegers Lake near Sidney just fight to have a dance with "Twinkletoes" Darby because he is such a smooth dancer. The girls even want to take him home to mother.

* * * *

Is Sgt. Graham working out of "E" Co. or Scottsbluff? The boys would like to have him put out a schedule to let them know when he is in Camp.

* * * *

Wonder who shortshected a certain Looey the other night?

* * * *

The other afternoon Sgts. Conley and Ylzaliturri put on a diving exhibition at the Alliance swimming pool that had the spectators spelibound. Must be the practice they get diving out of the plane.

* * * *

Pfc. Shulken said he donated a pint of blood the other night but not to the Red Cross. The mosquitos beat them to it. He says the mosquitos look like pigeons.

* * * *

Pvt. Haya keeps his eyes open when he goes to Alliance. Well he certainly would look silly walking around with his eyes shut.

THE AWFUL TRUTH

By Pete Homnick

Sgt. Lamsen seems to be making a bid for Pfc. Moran's yardbird vacancy (what do they call it, Sgt.?)—GOLDBRICKING ???)

Seems as if Pfc. Ballal wired for a 3-day extension, 'cause his Mom was ill; but there is a wee bit of a doubt in Sgt. Henderson's mind, eh—Tony?

A certain Sgt. in the Company has been wanting to see his name in the paper so here goes—Koczur, Koczur, Koczur, Koczur, Koczur—Happy Sgt.?

Everyone pitches horseshoes, but Pvt. "Basket" Cassidy is the only one who can ring one after making the shoes do a one and a half with a full twist.

A sight to see is Cpl. "Irish" Atlas telling Pvt. "Cold Sober" Wood that he doesn't count correctly when leaving the Mock Door. Pvt. Wood barnstormed the country making free jumps before coming into the Army.

You might not believe this, but one day last week "E" Company went the whole day without an inspection.

Cpl. Santini is very disappointed as only four girls are corresponding with him since his furlough. He knows he wooed at least ten.

Boys, you don't have to worry about a depression for the next four or five years, because, believe it or not, the local scotchman, Sgt. "Gotta Cigarette" Salter was seen spending a dime over at the P. X. the other nite.

"E" Company Chowhounds wanting seconds on corn on the cob see Sgt. "Smiles" Edmonson or Pfc. "Gums" Allen. They hate the filthy stuff. I hope both you boys were gentlemen enough to excuse yourselves when you bumped into that other boy's arm.

Sgt. "Mop the Floor" Robbins has a new theme song, "Let's All Sing Like the Birdies Sing." No thanks. Sgt., we'll stay in the dance and listen to the dance band, you go out and listen to the birds.

"E" Company had perfect music for their party when Pfc. Schulken took over a trumpet. Tell us, Rebel, how did you ever break away from all those women?

In the future this column will be written by Pfc. "I'm In Love" Homnick. That stripe, Peter, shows that your hard work and efforts on the barooka were not in vain.

Pfc. "Sailor" Wright and Pfc. "Lover" Groff have each received new stripes and already have them sewed on their gas masks and are planning a trip to the tattoo artist in Scotsbluff. You boys will find the stripe polish in the orderly room.

Then there is the story of Pfc. "Now You See It, Now You Don't" Stahler who asked the 1st Sgt. if he could go home a little early on his furlough, so that he could be with his Mother and Father on their golden wedding anniversary. The 1st Sgt. shook his head and grumbled about having to put up with that every fifty years.

Will someone take Cpl. "Blue Eyes" Manderscheid off in a corner and tell him about life? He's traveling around under the false illusion that he has a girl back home who'll wait for him until the war's over. Ten years is a long while, "Blue Eyes."

THE AWFUL TRUTH

By Pete Honnick

A certain blonde at the P. X. thinks Cpl. Menderscheid is cute but he won't give her a tumbler. Aw go ahead and give her a break, Manny.

There have been great love affairs in history but Romeo and Juliet, Mark Anthony and Cleopatra and the rest have nothing on the romance between "Terrible Terry" Nelson and Mary Ellen of Denver. They go together like Punch and Judy. We hope they live happily ever after.

Pvt. "Handsome" Grouff tried to steal Pvt. "Fred Astaire" Barnabe's girl "Punchy" last week. Now they have a feud between them. Barney tried to shoot Grouff on the machine gun range the other day.

Is it true that P. R. Hughes won't fall in love with a girl unless she is a good roller skater? He is known as the "Rollerdrome Kid".

Pfc Dade lost his dance card last week and was in a terrible fix because he couldn't remember which of his female admirers had the dances. He seems to favor Dorothy and gave her a bracelet last week.

Is it true that E Co. is restricted because Barnum was out after curfew? The boys usually put him to bed at nine p. m., but he sneaked away the other night.

Don't know how they did it but after all the lectures on the proper uniform to wear at the theater Pvts. Wright, Gifford, Collins, Cassidy and Koblischke went to the movies in their coveralls. And they got in too.

Seems Pfc. Keiser had the prettiest girl at Elitch's Gardens in Denver the other Saturday. Now he whispers "Gloria" all night long.

The boys now have a new rage, its horsehoes. Every morning before breakfast Sgts. Robbins and Kirkbride, Cpl. Workman and Pvts. Lewis and Matranga can be seen tossing near ringers.

The Awful Truth . . .

By Pete Hornick

The Mortar squad in the 2nd Platoon has shown a big improvement since the addition of E. C. Wood and Cliff Davis. E. C. Wood is a celebrity in our midst who once ran for Congress in Tennessee. He was one of the originators of the Prohibition Party in that state. Cliff Davis needs no introduction as the people of Alliance know him as one of their outstanding citizens before the war. (Did I say before the war?)

* * * *

Acting gadget "Rocky" Wright has been willed a diamond mine and goes around with a pocketful of rocks giving them out to his feminine admirers. He is better known as "Silent Bob" because of his reluctance to talk.

* * * *

Pfc. Pappy Rader has written a book on his Love Life and experiences in western Nebraska. He has titled his book "How To Woo and Win By The Numbers."

* * * *

Lt. Cecil hasn't been with the Company very long but he has the welfare of the boy's at heart. He went to Sidney to pass judgment on Jeanie, the sweetheart of "E" Company, but claims he couldn't make up his mind on such a short acquaintance, so he will have to go back.

* * * *

The girls of Sidney have voted Dick (dream man) Groff as the soldier they would most like to go out with.

* * * *

Wonder how Barnabe explained his romance with Punchy to the girl friend in Massachusetts?

* * * *

Pvt. (Office boy) Cassidy goes around singing "Don't Get Around Much Anymore." It's been so long since he was allowed out of camp that when his restriction was lifted he got homesick in town and hurried back to the Barracks. If his restriction would have lasted another week he would have had that tunnel to the P. X. finished. He had one built to the theatre but the C. O. happened to see him inside.

* * * *

One of the nicest couples seen over the week end were Mern and Whalley. They were alone but seemed to be talking to someone else named Junior. Who was Junior?

* * * *

Pfc. (Wino) Darby has been relieved of his job as Machine gunner to make room for a better man. "Muscles" Lepera the fellow who posed for those "Charles Atlas" ads in the magazines has taken his place.

* * * *

Someone remarked that Pfc. Arthur (Moonglow) Collins is broad minded. That's all he thinks of.

* * * *

Cpl. "Superman" Manderscheid has bought an interest in the P. X. Beer Concession. He can be seen there almost any evening sampling beer to see that the boy's don't get any bad bottles. He really takes an interest in his work.

It's a shame the way Frank Smith goes around breaking hearts. We thought he would stay true to a nice girl like Rita Hayworth but he is up to his old tricks running around with Gale of Scottsbluff.

* * * *

Pfc. (Brandy kid) Sampson is after Cassidy's job of filling the inkwells in the orderly room. Pvt. E. C. Wood is also after the job.

* * * *

Seems Newman is quite a Casanova. After Darby wined and dined his girl friend, "Curly locks" Newman came along and stole her heart. He had a little help from Sgt. Joe Coleman who kept his weather eye open for Darby.

About half the boundary of New York state is water.
