REPORT ON THIRD BATTALION NEPTUNE.

Upon reporting to regimental Headquarters in Carentan, orders were received to attack along the Baupre road at 0500, D plus 7, following artillery barrage commencing at 0430. As the location of the 1st Battalion was undefinite and guides not available, plans were made to attack with G-H-I-Co's echeloned to left rear with G Co. guiding on the Baupre road. The 2nd Battalion 506 was to attack on our right and the 501 on our left. Following a spotty barrage, the attack opened at 0500 as ordered. At this time there was no contact with any of the flank units or unit to be relieved. There was no communication within the Battalion.

Contact was made with the 1st Battalion 506 short of Douville; relief made, and the attack pushed. Enemy contact was immediately made and they withdrew slightly past Douville. As the attack progressed the Battalion found itself ahead of the 2nd Battalion and receiving fire in its rear from them. I Co. reported contact with the 501st on our left and found we were ahead of them also. The fire from front and flanks became very heavy and the attack halted. Help was asked for and a platoon of light tanks arrived. The tanks misjudged the front line and fired on our own men, killing at least two and wounding five. This plus the failure of either the 501st or 2nd Battalion 506 to advance forced our Battalion to withdraw to our original line of departure where the line was straightened and defence set up.

In the afternoon our Battalion was relieved by the 401st Glider Battalion plus a Battalion of the 2nd Armored Division with infantry attachments. The Battalion moved to a bivouac area in Carentan at the Basina Plot.
