3rd Battalion Mess . . .

BY PVT. JOHN CONDRAN

Last Friday we had the honor of a visit from none other than "Chow-hound Butch" Maloney, age about five. Unknown to his famous father, Col. Maloney, his son wandered into 3rd Bn. Mess. No doubt on an inspection tour. Upon arrival he retrieved a mess-kit and proceeded through the chow line. Boy what an appetite that lad has, he didn't miss a thing. After finishing his chow, he bid everyone a fond farewell and went on his way. I am sure his mother will be around for the menu. Which only goes to prove to you gents, that we have the best in the regiment.

Lt. Chambers recently appointed mess officer is really getting the boys on the well known ball. It looks as though better meals are coming "Family Style".

Pvt. "Sad Sack" Milchunas would make a swell farmer if it were possible to plow a field with rifle bullets.

The pictures so kindly contributed to the mess halls by S/Sgt. Kramer and his cohort Pvt. Milchunas, has sent many a man to town with quite a different appetite.

This mess hall must have the best food in the regiment. The proof of this statement---the many attempted burglaries.

S/Sgt. "Personality" Perry, able bodied food dispenser of 3rd Bn., has this to say about his recent visit to Chadron: Quote, "It's de nuts," unquote. Then after meeting Pvt. McJenzie's latest girl friend he has this to say: Quote, "Beast," unquote.

Pvt. "Denver" Slough recently evicted from the base hospital is once again back with us. This time he has the title of K. P. chaser deluxe. K. P.'s beware: this man is dangerous.

Congratulations to T-4 Hunter, T-4 Sevier and Pvt. Condran for a fine exhibition of expert rifle shooting the other day.

We now have two new cooks just recently graduated from jump school. They are Pvt. Charles Rushing and Pvt. Billy Roberts.

Pvt. "Robie" Robertson, after a recent visit to our fair city of Alliance, awoke to find a pair of ladies hosiery in his pocket. We have no doubt they were a present for his mother.

The other night the town of Alliance was invaded by the royal trio, namely, T-4 Johns. "Duck Waddle" Wasson, Robie Robertson. That is really what you call the bums rush for the gals. A very big accent on the "bums".

3rd Battalion Mess . . .

BY PVT. JOHN CONDRAN

Congratulations to Lt. Chambers on his excellent idea of converting mess hall 1708 into a battalion hall. With a juke box and refreshments it will make a swell place to dance. I wonder if the Lt. could get a bevy of chorus girls to add to the entertainment?

S/Sgt. Salewski's last column should have been written on a postage stamp. I had a devil of a time trying to find a microscope so I could read it. It is our profound opinion that the Sgt. Major should find another way to release his talents and leave the newspaper business to those who have a knack for it. May we suggest the stage as a comedian?

Will the men who drive those tanks around here please slow down when you pass the mess hall? You are making T/4 Hunter's and Pvt. Werner's cakes fall. Or could that be the reason?

The mess section is seriously contemplating a collection for the purchase of a parachute, for none other than our old friend "Wolf" Wasson. The reason for such a purchase is to protect the "Wolf" from falling down those nasty long stairways in Alliance. Sober, too!

T/4 Smith, besides being a noted authority on the art of cooking, is also renowned for his vast knowledge on reptiles. He can even tell you where to find one with the head of a beautiful woman.

T/4 Dixon has left H & I company mess hall. So now the KPs of that mess hall will no longer have to endure the whip lash. Look out, HQ. and G.

The 3rd Bn. Mess wishes to extend to Lt. Crooks it's most profound thanks for his compliment in the last issue of this paper.

T/5 "Slow Motion" Johns is really getting on the well known beam lately. It is really a study in human nature to see what control a good wife has over a man.

Sgt. Hicks is getting to look like the cigar store Indian. If ever you want to find him just look in front of the Alliance Hotel.

T/4 Sevier the barber supreme, has brought to the tonsorial world, an outstanding new way of cutting hair. "It is done quite simply with a jack knife," quoted the Sgt.

T/5 Sheffield has brought to the culinary art a vastly improved way of making potato salad. If any of the Mess Sgts. of the regiment wish to get the recipe just ask him.

S/Sgt. "Personality" Perry and his partner in crime, Pvt. "Heart Trouble" Slough, were having a rather boistrous good time at the expense of "Wolf" Wasson in town the other night. It seems the Wolf was rather peeved at their antics.

Those wedding bells are breaking up that old gang of mine. If any more of the lads get married the poor bachelors won't have a chance. Now it is rumored that Pvt. Robertson is on the verge. Can this be true, Robie?

T/4 Petskerow, the Smoky City flash, is rather astounded at the sight of actual sun light since leaving that fair city. OOOoh, Johnny, how you can love. The other night our boy was in town and guided by the able hands of "Push Push" Milchunas. It seems it was rather a tough job, especially since Petsy had an awful yen for grocery stores and hotels.

BEFORE STARTING ON a night mission, study the details of the area to be covered, in the daylight if possible, and from photographs and maps.

ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT when scouting close to the enemy at night your best protection from observation is silent movement.

All-Fired Sleepy

OAKLAND, Calif.—Fire broke out under Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Gero's bed. It brought fire trucks and police. It aroused everyone in the neighborhood. But not the Geros.

The floor and rug were afire. Firemen splashed and stomped around. From the bed came mutterings of protest, interspersed with snores. The fire out, the firemen locked the door, leaving the couple sleeping soundly.
