Hdq. and Headquarters Company

Cpl. William T. McDade

After discontinuing this column for two weeks we found it a bit difficult to start in again . . . "Red Matheson and myself will collaborate and write it together in the future. It will be the first time S-2 and demolition ever collaborated on anything . . . It was a new and at times an amusing sight for the "field soldiers" of the Co. to see the office soldiers out in the field "dry running" with the M-1 . . . In all fairness to the Co. Hq. men, however, we must say that they did O. K. on the range . . . Cpl. "Casanova" Gunther resembled anything but "the great lover" after an hour or two in the mud filled pits . . . The democratic way was illustrated during the two monotonous, not weeks that the men were in the field. Master Sergeants gave way to Corporals and listened while the lower ranker explained the intricate workings of the M-1 . . . even S/Sgt. Lisenby pulled targets, and to put it mildly, that's something The

Cpl. Choquette's entrance to home town after a ten month absence . . . S/Sgt. Lisenby claims "that he is about to be married." He has also promised a huge party, at which the whole company will be welcome .

Headquarters & Headquarters Co.

Pvt. McDade

Things that couldn't happen but did . . .

Sergeant Lisenby returned from a week-end in Atlanta—on time and in one piece . . .

Pvt. "Buffalo Head" Choquette going ga-ga over an Atlanta belle . . .

Pvt. "Preach" Williams back on jump status and jumping after the medicos said "never again" . . . Cpl. Cooper of a week-end pass (but minus his deckle Cpl. Stutzman must have burned the cookies) . . .

Pvt. "Black Bart" Fleming dropping his usual duties as carpenter helper and going into the field with the company for a change . . .

In the "Fat Lip" and "Puffed Eye" departments this week we have Cpl. Brundage and Cpl. "Reb" Robinson . . .

In the "Cracked Skull" and "Broken Bones" we have Pvt. "I like 'em big" Re . . .

Believe it or not, fellows, Cpl. "Butterbal" Sherman corresponds with eight officers and he says he receives answers from all of them . . . Why we should roller skate and play ping-pong when we go to Atlanta) . . .

Pfc. "Lion Dade" Cannox is back among old friends at the PX after a short furlough . . . the two he is to be seen most with is Steinerbrun and Burger . . .

MAJOR COMMENDS MEN OF DEMOLITION SECTION

Maj. Edwin J. Ostberg, commanding officer of the 1st Battalion, commended S/Sgt. Walter Lisenby and his men of the regimental headquarters Demolition Section for their fine work during the battalion's recent three-day field problem.

The raiding party managed to penetrate the battalion's outer security and thence work its way into the battalion C. P. This unit then made off with a number of heavy weapons, rifles, and operations maps. The problem was indicative of the initiative and resourcefulness of the enlisted men of the regimental demolition section. The men taking part were S/Sgt. Lisenby, Cpl. Mitchell, T-5 Sherman, Pvts. Apple, B. E. Kelly, T. P. Kelly, Shedder, Adams, Cox, Rogers, Fox and Wright
