By Sgt. Virian A. Wadford

A new pair of captain's bars have been added to this company recently. They are none other than those of our own company commander, Captain Smith — congratulations, captain, we were all very glad to learn of your promotion and also very proud of you.

Among the other promotions were Cpl. Ed Lewis to Sgt., Cpl. Turner to Sgt., Cpl. Zapf to Sgt. and Pfc. Cottrell to Cpl. Keep up the fine work fellows.

Pvt. Mounstala, will you tell us who sends you those boxes from Scotland? And Sgt. Sater, what makes you think you have such a large chest? Another thing, glimmer boy, why don't you send Rowland Russell one of those twelve pictures you have?

News From 'F' Company

One of the interesting items to take place in the past few weeks is the news getting out of our members in various places from over the state and the far West. The members who are going to show you how to make their lives more interesting and varied should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the business side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the home side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the social side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the financial side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the health side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.

The members who are interested in the family side of the business should see how they are doing in that particular line.
