HYPOTHOTS

Pfc. Joseph Kolsh

Did you know that S/Sgt. Nelson Hornbaker was married? Yes, it happened on July 6, 1943, and his wife is living here in Alliance. Sgt., all of us here in the Det. wish you and your wife all the luck in the world.

Some where in this newspaper you will find a picture of S/Sgt. Harold Ahlquist. I just wanted to add to it that when he was a baby he won a beauty contest in New York and at that time he was called the Baby Dumpling of Long Island.

By the way Pvt. Beam, W. Olish, R. Miller, J. Despot, E. Kohute, just made T/S. Keep up the good work boys.

It's the same old story—Pfc. Beam came back from some ranch limping—he just won't believe that cows are tougher than he.

Well all of our work is done, as far as gardening goes. All we need now is for some one to tell us to move to a different site in this camp.

If G. Weldon doesn't get that radio-out of our bunk, he will drive us all nuts soon. The only thing he gets out of it is noise and plays it from 6 till 10 p. m. No wonder all the boys enjoy going to town.

We just got five new members for our Det., namely: J. Barnett, C. West, J. Truman, Richie and Powers.

Some one asked me if Denver was our's now that we took it over. Shall I tell him?

From what I hear we are going to have a bigger and better USO in Alliance.

The last time I was at the Alliance pool, who comes walking in but J. Vinski, E. Elliott and Varnauskas. They stayed for about one hour and left, 'cause they were full of tar—where they got it is a mystery.

Our friend Joseph Stahowiak is in his glory these days. On his recent Denver jump his picture was taken for the Denver Post . . . the next day he bought his first paper . . . the Denver Post.

So far as I know three of our fellows got black eyes from shooting the M-1 out on the range last week. They are: P. McGhee, G. Weldon and W. Rapp. Some kick, fellows.

S/Sgt. Harold Ahlquist, born Feb. 16, 1919 in New York City, worked for the Westinghouse Co. before he signed up for the Medical Corps in July 7th, 1941. Has been with the 507 for a year and four months, in the the Med. Det.
