WD COPY THRU MRU OR SCU

The 2d Battalion crossed the DOUVE River southeast of STIEPVILLE and west of NORTHEAST by assault boats at 2300 hours the night of 13-14 June. The crossing was accomplished without incident. A feint by one squad distracted the enemy's attention to the area west of STIEPVILLE. Supported by an artillery barrage, the 1st Battalion, followed by the 3d Battalion, crossed over an un-liner foot-bridge beginning at 0615 hours and, attacked against slight opposition to the south to join forces with the 2d Battalion which was attacking from the rear the enemy force defending the bridgehead area. By 0730 hours the 2d Battalion had been passed through by the 1st and 3d Battalions and the regiment held an area extending from LE HAV DE HAUT (242010) along the edge of the BOIS DE LIMONS, thence north of LA D'AMOURVILLE to VINCENOTTAINE. The 3d Battalion, 507th Parachute Infantry, was attached to the 125th and crossed at the same point as the 2d Battalion. It attacked on the regiment's left flank to pass through the 1st Battalion 507th Parachute Infantry, in VINCENOTTAINE and to seize PRIGOT. Enemy resistance increased but the regiment finally broke through and entered its lines enroute to a depth of 3,000 yards south of the DOUVE River by 2000 hours. The engineers completed a bridge south of STIEPVILLE by 1700, permitting supporting artillery and vehicles to join the regiment.
