Lt. Smith Killed In Action in Normandy

Mrs. Catherine B. Smith of 408 Fulton St. was informed that her son was killed in action in Normandy July 10.

Smith

Lt. Smith, who also had served in North Africa and Sicily, was made a first lieutenant on a Tunisian battlefield May 1, 1943 because of his exceptional leadership. During a battle in the valley of Sedjenane, he personally directed the fire of his machine guns.

He was wounded earlier in the North African campaign when he went ashore with the first wave of troops. He was held prisoner by the French for a time.

He was a commando in the North African and Sicilian campaigns. His brother, Sgt. Harold Smith, is with a Ranger battalion in Normandy.

In 1941 Lt. Smith, then a sergeant, was special Company L correspondent for the Sunday Telegram at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

He was a member of Company L for six years and was inducted into the Army Oct. 15, 1940. He was a member of Trinity Church.

A younger brother, Richard, expects to enter the Air Corps.
