Company 'H' Prop Wash

Pls. G. G. Willey

First of all Co. "H" officers and enlisted men wish to extend hearty congratulations to the staff of Boots and Wings for their excellent publications in 1943 their first year. You "dove" good, men.

But to the news of Co. "H" T. S. clips are available in the Chaplain's office for the boys who missed their plane back to the Base from the Denver jump Sunday, July 19. What sorry excuses they gave! But you'll still have to do your restrictions, all four of us. Incidentally, the Assembly Bar in Denver is now officially designated as Co. "H" Headquarters in that city. You'll generally find at least one of the "characters" there any week end. And hats off to "Marty," the amine bar keep. She can mix you a drink that will make you run upstairs and rob your own

McMahon: "Don't pick on me individually."

Bally: "I'm up. I'm up. I'm up."

Carrippo: "That damn De Benna's got my slippers again."

Nell: "I don't want to argue. Willey, but . . ."

Mick: "I'm not going on no detail."

McCarroll: "Let's go over and drink beer."

Nagel: "We don't do this in the Ale Cabeta."

Anyone who passes the Company Area between 6:30 and 8:30 will be amazed to see a few men touring the "front yard" dressed in overcoats and carrying full field packs. In spite of the various and conflicting excuses, we can lay the blame on two things—women and whiskey—the ruination of many a good soul. The First Platoon is well represented on this tour by one Robert McMahon (black bluffs) who seems to

ROOTS and WINGS

MALFUNCTIONS and

Bits About The Third Battalion

Here's off to the handsome, young cadet from Utica, New York whose charm and personality have won him the love of a nurse at Camp Croft. . . The communication class was graced by the presence of two of our most brilliant members, this week. Vic and his partners, who address to the name of "Muscle Head". . . Pvt. Nell recently amazed the instructors at the communications school with an exhibition of pole climbing which left them awe-stricken.

Two high-falootin' gamblers recently left their mark at a Phoenix City establishment. $45 worth at a well-known joint.

With the holidays over the streets will soon resemble a house down with ferns to the right of us and tents to the left of us. . . If you know what I mean. . . The new 1st Sgt. seems to be a right guy. Why not, he's a New Yorker. . . I fearfully fear the day when a certain staff sergeant is run out of Montgomery where he keeps company with the select girl in the 7th grade. . . For a small man Sergeant "B" weighs a lot of weight around the company. . . Poor Mateo. . . he will return to find that his pride and joy must leave his upper lip. . . Hurrah for our diligent latrine orderly. One slight mishap, when do we get hot water. . . GIVE to see the C. O. get his captivity. . . They don't know any better. . . Private Hoxford tendered his resignation from the famed Ye Ye Club. . . Dillmore is casting anxious eyes at that new E. F. C. Technician rating. Go get it, kid, you can do it. . . Lt. Woodhead recently returned from the hospital. He made breakfast in bed. . .
