Mrs. Armelda C. Caudill

Dwale, Kentucky

Dear Mrs. Caudill:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKIN

Dear Mrs. Campbell:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the Department and the War Relocation Authority to make arrangements for the return of the bodies of the heroes of the World War II. The Department of the Army has been authorized with this matter responsibility to the War Relocation Authority. The records of the War Relocation Authority indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Consulates," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to retain your rights to the next of kin in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option B, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after the receipt by you. The prompt return will avoid unnecessary delay.

Dear Mrs. Caudill:

Acknowledgment is made of your letter of 24 March 1945 requesting information concerning your son, the late Private First Class John J. Amburgey.

The official report of interment received in this office reveals that the remains of your son were interred in the United States Military Cemetery #1, St. Mere Eglise, France, Plot D, Row 4, Grave 68.

In view of the fact that The Adjutant General, ASP, Washington, D. C. has jurisdiction over the information pertaining to the circumstances surrounding the death of our deceased military personnel, I am forwarding a copy of your letter to that office for reply.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in the loss of your son.

FOR THE QUARTERMASTER GENERAL:

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Caudill:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal effects of your son, Private First Class John J. Amburgey.

I am inclosing a check for $33.28, representing funds which belonged to him. The remainder of the property is being forwarded to you in one package.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

The action of this Bureau in transmitting personal effects does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution according to the laws of the state of the soldier's legal residence.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your son.

Yours very truly,
