Dear Mr. Young:

The Army Effects Bureau has received from overseas some personal property of your son, Technician Fifth Grade Angus J. Young.

To make proper disposition of this property, it is necessary that we have certain information regarding your son's family. I would like to know whether he was married and, if so, the name and address of his widow.

Regrettably, the personal cards appear to be blood-stained. In the event it is determined you are the proper recipient of your son's property, I would like an expression from you whether or not you wish these items sent.

If your son left a Will which has been probated, please furnish the original or a certified copy of the Letters Testamentary. Any papers submitted will be returned to you as soon as possible.

Please mail your reply in the inclosed addressed envelope which needs no postage, as this will accelerate delivery of the property.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir

I hope you won't think me a nuisance but a Corporal in my sons outfit has written me lately, and informed me that my son's wallet with the pictures he had in it were re-turned to me, I reciev'd my son's effects but there was no wallet enclosed, do you think that perhaps it might be possible, at so late a date to locate it,

I know I am asking a most difficult thing, after
so long a time, but you

Dear Mr. Young:

The War Department is most desirous that you be furnished the burial location of your son, the late Technician Fifth Grade Angus J. Young, A.S.N. 32 873 141.

The records of this office disclose that his remains are interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery, Alesville, France, plot E, row 4, grave 80.

This cemetery is located approximately twenty miles northwest of St. Lo, twenty-four miles southeast of Cherbourg and five miles north and slightly west of Carentan, all in France, and is under the constant care and supervision of United States military personnel.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in the loss of your son.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Young:

Your letter pertaining to the remains of your son, the late Technician Fifth Grade Angus J. Young, has come to my attention.

The "Request for Disposition of Remains" forms pertaining to World War II Dead in the United States Military Cemetery Blosville, France, where the remains of your son are now buried, have not yet been mailed to the next of kin of those heroic dead.

The Return of World War II Dead Program provides for the return of the deceased to their next of kin in a predetermined scheduled sequence of the cemeteries in which they are now buried. Efficient and rapid accomplishment of this tremendous program requires not only close adherence to mailing schedules for the Disposition forms made in agreement with the scheduled cemetery sequence, but also accurate verification of all vital records of every decedent prior to the mailing of the Disposition form. When verification for each cemetery is completed, the forms are mailed well in advance of the scheduled processing of the cemetery.

I fully understand your natural anxiety and impatience, and assure you that you will receive your Disposition form in ample time for complete, satisfactory expression and fulfillment of your desires for the final disposition of your beloved son.

With deep regret, I must inform you that existing regulations do not provide for burial of a serviceman's parents in a national cemetery by virtue of his service.

I sincerely regret the delay in replying to your letter and wish to extend my sympathy in your great loss.

Sincerely yours,

RICHARD B. COOMBS

Dear Mr. Young:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemetery," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM D. LARSEN

Dear Sir.

When Mr Young requested the return of our sons' body to the U.S.
to be interred at Farningdale National Cemetery L.I.
we didn't know there was a Chapel there, we are wondering if it might be possible for us to have his body taken to the Chapel and our Pastor say the burial service there, & then interred at Farmingdale, will the government do that, or must we have our undertaker meet the train and take care of our son's body from then on, we would like this arrangement and will pay the additional cost, of course if this change is impossible, we will abide by the decision we first made, as we are fully

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Young:

Your letter pertaining to the remains of your son, the late Technician Fifth Grade Angus J. Young, has come to my attention.

Having selected the Long Island National Cemetery at Farmingdale, New York, for final burial of the remains of your son, no other burial arrangements are necessary or advisable until you receive notice of the expected date of arrival of the remains from the Distribution Center nearest your home. This arrival date will be transmitted to you sufficiently in advance to permit completion of all funeral and service arrangements that you may desire.

At that time, you will only be required to arrange directly with the superintendent of the Long Island National Cemetery, the agreed date and hour of burial and all funeral services contemplated at the grave and within the chapel. All details of actual burial, including opening of grave, use of equipment, storage room and necessary labor will be provided for by the superintendent.

Please rest assured that we will assist you in every possible manner.
