Gentlemen:

This is in reply to your request of March 24, 1948, regarding disposition of the remains of Lieutenant Foy E. Baker.

Our chapter Home Service worker reports that the former widow, Mrs. Willie R. Baker, has remarried and that her name is now Mrs. Lane Quota. Her present address is 1610 Buena Vista, San Antonio, Texas. Inasmuch as her new address is San Antonio, Texas, where you have a distribution center, we assume that you will refer this case to that office for further service. Under the circumstances we are returning the Form 345 to your office.

This will supplement our earlier interim report of April 9, 1948, at which time we advised you of information that had been received to that date. Information concerning the marriage and address was obtained from the former widow's parents.

If further information is desired, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Janet Neel

Dear Mrs. Quota:

This office has been notified that you are the remarried widow of the late 2/Lt Foy E. Baker.

We have recently attempted to contact the father, Mr. Bertie A. Baker, whose address is listed on our records as Dripping Springs, Texas and we have been unable to locate him. We merely desire at this time to furnish him with certain information about the Return Program of World War II Dead. However, it will be extremely important that we be able to contact him with the least delay at some future date when his son's remains arrive in the United States.

It will be greatly appreciated if you will furnish this office with Mr. Baker's present address.

Very truly yours,
