MEMORANDUM FOR FILE:

Reference letter 29 April 1947 from AGRC, ETA, reporting identity of Unknown X-97, Plot T, Row 7, Grave 140, USMC, Blosville, France, as F/Sgt. Stanley K. Black, Royal Australian Air Force. Items of personal effects listed as recovered from remains of the decedent, consists of French francs, one flag, one shilling, and two tags.

These items of personal effects were received at the Bureau in February 1945 marked with the identity of X-97 Blosville Cemetery; plot, row, and grave number was not known. Report concerning receipt of these effects was furnished OQMG 11 January 1946. Due to similarity in burial location, these personal effects forwarded to widow of Cpl. James M. Naff. Corporal Naff was originally interred as Unknown X-94, buried in Blosville Cemetery, Plot T, Row 7, Grave 132.

In view of the fact that widow of Corporal Naff has accepted the items of personal effects, action on our part to regain the effects is impracticable. Should inquiry be received at a later date, this discrepancy should be reported.

Dear Mrs. Naff:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the honored dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.
