Dear Mrs. Hance,

Reference is made to the interment of your son, the late Staff Sergeant Edmund C. Moore, and his comrades, which was made in Graves 496 and 497, Section 79, Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, St. Louis 23, Missouri. It is regretted that because of the fact it was impossible to identify individually the remains of your son, you were deprived of the comfort and consolation which you might have been afforded by interring his remains at home.

It is felt that you might like to have the inclosed photograph of the stone which has been placed at the grave.

You are assured that the grave will always be cared for in a manner fully commensurate with the sacrifice your son has made for his country. Any desired information concerning the grave or the cemetery will be furnished upon request.

Sincerely yours,

S/Sgt. Edmund C. Moore, 15 101 927
Group Burial
United States Military Cemetery
Margraten, Holland

Mrs. Alice Moore Hance
430 East Church Street
Jacksonville 2, Florida

Dear Mrs. Hance:

The Department of the Army desires that you be given the most recent information concerning your son, the late Staff Sergeant Edmund C. Moore, ASN 15 101 927.

His remains were initially buried with others of his comrades who met their death in the same incident. Since that time the American Graves Registration Service has, without success, explored every clue that might lead to individual identification of any of the remains, and has at last been forced to conclude that only a group identification of the remains is possible. They are now casketed and, pending return to the United States, are being held at the United States Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland.

All remains in this group will be brought back simultaneously for interment in Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, located at Saint Louis 23, Missouri.

This plan for the burial of all the known groups of men for whom individual identity cannot be established in one of our country's shrines is based upon the provisions of Public Law 383, 79th Congress, as amended by Section 3, Public Law 368, 80th Congress. Final interment in a National Cemetery in the United States where perpetual care will be given the graves, is fitting and proper. This particular National Cemetery was selected in order that no undue burden of travel might be placed on any one family wishing to attend the services.

You and the next of kin of the other men will be informed of the date and time of the final interment sufficiently in advance to permit you and any interested persons to attend the ceremonies. In order that you may receive information concerning these final rites, it is essential, in case you change your address, that you promptly inform the Commanding Officer, Chicago Quartermaster Depot, Attention AGRD, 1819 West Pershing Road, Chicago 9, Illinois.

Sincerely yours,

E. V. FREEMAN

Dear Mr. Smith:

I have your letter of April 8, containing the most recent information concerning my son, QMGMF 293 Moore, Edmund C. -- SN 15 101 927 , and I appreciate it very much.

Even though it is such a heart-breaking experience, I am glad to know just how it all happened. I would like so much to get in touch with this Buddy of his that survived the accident.

I shall be looking forward to hearing just when and where this group burial will be held.
I am glad that it will be in a National Cemetery. In fact, I was planning , had I gotten his body back individually, to bury him in a National Cemetery.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Hance:

The Department of the Army is desirous that you be given the most recent information concerning your son, the late Staff Sergeant Edmund C. Moore.

With deep regret, I must inform you that, although the remains of your son have been recovered, it was not possible, because of the manner in which he met his death, to identify his remains individually.

According to our records, the plane on which your son was a passenger crashed in the vicinity of Fluren, Germany, on 24 March 1945, during the offensive to force a crossing of the Rhine River, below the Netherland Border. Of the nineteen men manifested aboard, one survived; the other eighteen died as a result of the casualty. Their remains were recovered from the wreckage of the plane by our American Graves Registration Service and removed to the United States Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland, where the remains of twelve of the decedents have since been individually identified.

Although the remains of the other six decedents have been processed through a Central Identification Laboratory by qualified anthropologists, medical, dental, and laboratory technicians in an effort to establish individual identification, I regret that the condition of the remains precluded the possibility of individual identification. They have, therefore, been designated as a group of which the collective identity alone is known. The remains of these honored dead are presently resting in the United States Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland, pending final disposition.

In accordance with the policy of the Department of the Army, the remains of all group burials, of which the collective identity alone is known, will be returned to the United States for final interment in a National Cemetery. The National Cemetery will be designated by The Quartermaster General, and special consideration will be given to the geographical location of the cemetery in order to distribute, as equally as possible, the travel burden upon all next of kin involved. All next of kin will be informed at a later date of the National Cemetery designated and will also be notified of the time of the services.

Dear Mrs. Hance:

Your letter to the Graves Registration Service, Atlanta, Georgia, pertaining to the remains of your son, the late Staff Sergeant Edmund C. Moore, has been referred to this office.

Although remains recovered from the general area in which your son lost his life are being re-examined by our Graves Registration Command personnel for the purpose of positive identification, there is no evidence at this time that any of the remains are those of your son.

If other remains are recovered, and comparison with all known facts available from your son's Army records furnishes conclusive evidence of his identity you will be advised.

Meanwhile, I regret that I cannot assure you that it will be possible to return the remains of your son until a report of burial is received.

May I extend my sympathy in your great loss.

OFFICER in charge of
Graves Registration Service
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Sir:

I should like a little information if you please. I hope that I have not become unduly alarmed by the article I saw in the "Florida Times-Union",(Sept.27,).

I understood that the blanks requesting the return of our boys' bodies would be sent to us, without our writing first, so I have been waiting for my blank.

Now, according to this article, I understand that over 16,000 bodies are still awaiting disposition because the next of kin have failed to return the final burial forms, and that all overseas cemeteries will be closed out by the end of November.

I have not received one of the request forms and I am wondering if it is too late for me to do anything about it.

Surely, my son's body was recovered -- I had a letter from his Commanding Officer telling me about his death, and his burial in a cemetery in Germany.

My son belonged to 507 Parachute Infantry, and was killed on March 24,1945. His name and Army Serial No. was : Staff Sgt. Edmund C. Moore -- 15101927.

I shall appreciate any advice you can give me on this matter.

very truly yours,

Alice Moore Hance

Dear Mrs. Hance:

Your inquiry to the Adjutant General's office, has been referred to the Army Effects Bureau for reply in connection with the personal effects of your son, Staff Sergeant Edmund C. Moore.

A check of our records indicates that we have not, as yet, received any of his effects.

All War Department agencies are under instruction to forward the personal effects of military personnel to the Army Effects Bureau for disposition, and it is reasonable to assume that his property ultimately will be received here. However, because of transportation difficulties, considerable time may elapse before shipment arrives.

You may be assured that upon the receipt of any property, prompt disposition will be made.
